

Great EVERYDAY Italian Wines

Links to Wine World

The world of wine is growing in leaps and bounds and the stream of information that is available today can be overwhelming. Our staff has searched the web and has come up with a list of web-sites and bogs that are the most informative and easy to navigate.

Wine Events

The best way to learn about wine is attending a local wine dinner at your favorite restaurant, a tasting at your local wine shop or a charity function. There are so many great wine events going on all over the United States today and most wines magazines have a listing or a calendar of events showcasing them. The following web-site is one of the best found on the web that can help you plan your 2008 calendar

Local wine events.com is one of the best sources on the web to find events in your area
